The National Catholic Church
Office of the Presiding Archbishop

Date: August 1, 2026

The National Catholic Church is pleased to announce the appointment of Mrs. Keely Parks as Lay Administrator for the Jurisdiction of the United States of America. In this important role, Mrs. Parks will assist with the administrative operations of the Church, support the clergy and faithful, and help further the mission and growth of the National Catholic Church throughout the United States. We are grateful for her willingness to serve and for the gifts and dedication she brings to this office. We ask the faithful to keep Mrs. Parks in their prayers as she begins this new ministry, that Almighty God may bless her with wisdom, strength, and every grace necessary to faithfully fulfill the responsibilities entrusted to her.

The National Catholic Church is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. J. Michael Compton as Canon Musician for the Jurisdiction of the United States of America. In this office, Canon Compton will provide leadership in the Church's sacred music ministry, promoting the rich musical heritage of the Catholic tradition while supporting the liturgical life of our clergy and faithful. His responsibilities will include fostering excellence in sacred music, advising on liturgical musical standards, and assisting in the development of music resources throughout the Church. We give thanks to Almighty God for Canon Compton's willingness to serve in this important ministry and ask the faithful to remember him in their prayers, that the Lord may continue to bless him with wisdom, inspiration, and grace as he carries out this sacred responsibility for the glory of God and the sanctification of His Church.

✠ ✠ The Most Rev. Michael Saintz

Assistant Presiding Archbishop of The National Catholic Church
Archbishop of The United States of America
