

The National Catholic Church

“Service, Unity, Charity”

General Beliefs

Our differences with the Roman Catholic Church are primarily disciplinary and administrative. Some of our goals and practices include:

- To restore the ancient rights and privileges of the clergy and the bishops.
- To restore the clergy and the laity their right to take part in the election of their Patriarchs and Bishops.
- To release the clergy from the compulsory vow of celibacy.
- The inclusion of the laity in the liturgical worship of the Church. This includes the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and The Divine Office.
- To promote a spirit of charity among Christians of all denominations; to repress all sentiments of bitterness and fanaticism; to accentuate all points of agreement with others, and to minimize, as far as possible, points of disagreement, with a view that the accomplishment of the Will of our Divine Lord, that his followers should be united in one body. (St. John, XVII)
- Our Mission centers on the ideals of, “In essentials, unity; In non-essentials, liberty; in all things, charity.” We look forward to the unification of, not only both lungs of the Eastern Orthodox and Western Catholic Churches, which form the full body of the Faith, but all Christian Denominations. That we may all be one body in Christ. We reject Vatican I, and the teaching of papal infallibility.
- Remembering the precepts of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, “Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, and with all thy strength”; “Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.” We base our life on loving others, for God. Instead of looking at differences in a person, religion, or race, we strive to seek out similarities in each other that grow our relationship with our Divine Lord.
- Our Faith is based upon Apostolic Tradition of the Undivided Church, belief in the Holy Trinity as the One Triune Godhead - One God, in three distinct persons; the definition of the seven Ecumenical Councils of the undivided Church; the Creeds; the teachings of Sacred Scripture and the Patristic Fathers.
- We believe in the Seven Sacraments instituted by Jesus Christ, as well as the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and Transubstantiation. Our common form of the Holy Mass is celebrated from the Missale Romanum (Pre-1955) and The Traditional English Missal (William Knott).
- We practice the invocation of and veneration of the Holy Mother of God, as well as the Saints and the Holy Angels.
- We pray for the Resurrection of the Faithful Departed. We pray for the souls of the Church suffering in purgatory.
- We believe in the use of icons, statues, the veneration of relics; and the Adoration and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament to be a means of finding greater faith and devotion.
- We trust that God is truth and the center of our life. With God being all truth, we believe that science and faith will not overrule one another. Neither can true Religion be harmed or its progress impeded by bold, honest, straightforward enunciation of scientific, historical, or theological ascertain facts, nor can true religion be assisted by fraud, falsehood, concealment of the truth, exaggeration or any kind of impostor.
- We reject simony or any other earthly reward for any sacraments, spiritual graces or guidance received from the clergy.

VOW OF INTENT AND GUIDANCE

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

To the Faithful in Jesus Christ throughout the World:

GREETING AND BENEDICTION

CANONICAL PROMISE OF INTENT AND GUIDANCE

BE IT KNOWN THAT I _____,

Before God and His Holy Church, having duly subscribed to, do make the following declaration of my most solemn vow and promise:

I believe that I have been called by the Holy Ghost to be set aside to the life and work as a servant of Jesus Christ within the National Catholic Church. I believe in one God; Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; and do confess Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. I am persuaded that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, as interpreted under the guidance of the Holy Ghost, convey the Word of God, and contain all things necessary for salvation through faith in Jesus Christ, and are the unique and authoritative standard for my faith and life.

I accept with reverence the spirit of witness of the Fathers of the universal church, and the Seven Ecumenical Councils of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church, and I do solemnly engage to conform to the Doctrine, Tradition, Discipline and Worship of The National Catholic Church.

I do further place myself, as the supreme act of humility and discipleship, under the guidance, authority, and oversight of the National Catholic Church for as long as I exercise my ministry and maintain Holy Orders.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have affixed my signature with prayer and devotion.

Official Policy On Misconduct By The Clergy

Within The National Catholic Church

Recent events in our country and society here in the United States and other parts of the world have made it necessary to publish and provide a clear understanding within the ranks of all of the clergy and the faithful, (and prayerfully we pray, eventually within each and every jurisdiction of the Church), that ZERO tolerance will and must be the standard operating guideline for issues of inappropriate misconduct by the clergy. This will also be the standard operating understanding and procedure for the clergy of The National Catholic Church.

We have adopted, herewith, a working and official policy of, and for, The National Catholic Church regarding the sexual misconduct of clergy, employees, regular volunteers, seminarians, and candidates for ordination and/or incardination.

- The National Catholic Church has zero tolerance for any physical misconduct by its clergy and or any one employed by, or working for, or even volunteering to work for, or with this Church.
- This includes inappropriate physical contact with parishioners, those being counseled, those going to confession or receiving any of the Holy Mysteries / Sacraments, and, of course. minors/disabled/geriatric or anyone that is considered as vulnerable. This also includes any inappropriate physical contact with minors, wanted or unwanted.
- Inappropriate physical activity with minors/disabled or geriatrically vulnerable people will be immediately reported to law enforcement entities and investigated by them.
- Further, inappropriate and unwanted physical activity with anyone else with whom a clergyman has a pastoral care relationship of any kind, will result in immediate suspension of ecclesiastical faculties. This means that faculties and the authority to celebrate the Holy Mysteries will be removed immediately with a referral to treatment if found guilty. If cleared of all charges by both church and law enforcement entities. all faculties and authorities to celebrate the Holy Mysteries / Sacraments of the Church will, of course, be restored and all records marked as "cleared." If the clergy person is found and proven guilty their suspension will become permanent and they will be deposed from the ministry of the Church.
- Finally, (and very sadly there are cases both in the United States and other countries) - anyone found, after investigation by Church authorities and law enforcement, to have deliberately and inaccurately accused one of the clergy for the purposes of obtaining financial reward. To punish, humiliate, address or redress issues unrelated to inappropriate and unwanted physical contact via these kinds of inappropriate physical accusations and humiliation whether publicly and/or privately, will also be held responsible for such allegations and accusations. In that unfortunate circumstance, the clergy are herewith advised to seek personal and public redress for the injury to their reputations and good standing within the Church. Most of all, forgiveness and healing MUST BE the guiding light through forgiveness in these cases and all parties are encouraged to seek counseling and help in rebuilding their lives.

Official Public Statement on The National Catholic Church – Clergy and Political Activity

The National Catholic Church affirms that the mission of the Church is spiritual, pastoral, and evangelical in nature. Our clergy are called first and foremost to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to administer the Sacraments, to shepherd souls, and to form consciences according to Sacred Scripture and the teachings of the Catholic faith.

For this reason, priests of The National Catholic Church are not permitted to engage in partisan politics or political activity in public settings, including endorsements of political candidates, political parties, or political movements. We do not discriminate against others in regards to social class, ethnicity, age, sex, gender, or disability. Our clergy do not campaign, speak at political rallies in a partisan capacity, or use the pulpit, internet (personal or church accounts), or Church platforms for political advocacy.

This policy is not rooted in indifference to the challenges of the modern world. On the contrary, the Church has a duty to speak clearly and courageously to moral, social, and cultural issues facing society today. Our priests are encouraged to address the realities of contemporary life through the light of the Gospel, Sacred Scripture, and the moral teachings of the Church—calling all people to repentance, charity, justice, peace, and fidelity to Christ.

The Church forms consciences; it does not replace them. Our clergy seek to guide the faithful to think, pray, and act as Christians in the world, without binding the Gospel to any political party or ideology. In this way, The National Catholic Church remains focused on its sacred mission: proclaiming Christ, nurturing faith, and bringing souls to God.

If clergy are found to be in breaching of this policy, they may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and possibly including dismissal from the National Catholic Church, and all Faculties revoked.

God love you,
The Most Revered Michael Saintz
